Foreword

"'Tis not what man Does which exalts him,
but what man Would do."—Browning.

THE Staff of THE 1933 MOUNTAINEER presents this book to you to help preserve for you pleasant reminiscences of your two years at Weaver College.

When we have breasted the waves of life's fitful sea, have striven, some successfully, some less so, toward the achievement of our highest ambitions; may we turn back through these pages and remember our days at Weaver.

If this book, into which we have put our sincerest efforts, causes one happy laugh, one remembering sigh, or one wistful smile, we will have been repaid an hundred-fold.

—THE STAFF.

Dedication

To

MR. J. V. ERSKINE

Mayor of Weaverville

whose untiring efforts for Weaver College have helped to make our classwork possible, and to the genial "Mr. Johnny," whose friendliness toward us has endeared him to us all, we respectfully dedicate the 1933 MOUNTAINEER

Three Sisters

Thrice Queens, how long has thy great might alone
Held sway over thy peaceful, lesser fold?
Mantled in misty haze, the sun of old
Graciously slips behind thy queenly throne,
And lends his fading splendor to thine own.
Pausing one brief moment, he steeps the bold
Heavens in multi-colored molten gold—
Imparting peace and calmness; he is gone.
Thrice Sentinels, how quietly ye show
Your proud and noble heads though light has fled
Before the coming night. Unseen e'en now,
Yet strangely influential, for I know
You are still there, like the triune Godhead
Of His Omnipotence to whom we bow.

—HEELY JONES.

The Weaver College Prevaricator

WEATHER DRY

APRIL 1, 1940

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The editor of The Prevaricator recently wrote to the editor of the New York Times asking him for information concerning the whereabouts of certain members of the illustrious class of '33. The Times sent us the following illuminating news and social items from the nation's leading magazines and newspapers.)

Paul G. Schachner, star half of the Brooklyn Dandelions' professional football team, ran 200 yards, 6 feet, 17⅛ inches to score a touchdown against the Golden Tornado of Weaver Tech in a recent practice game, according to an article by "Windy" Miller, sports correspondent for the Bearst newspapers.—Brooklyn Outlook.

Mr. Julian "Country" Howell, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, was a visitor at Weaver College last week. He was accompanied by his bride, the former Jewel Wilson. It is reported that this romance began in a Weaver College Spanish class, under the tutelage of Miss Dulcie Hayes.—Weaverville Observer.

As Mrs. Adeline Teague McKinney, declared the most versatile woman tennis player since Ellen Hills Moody, stepped up to receive the championship cup in the Casadena, Palifornia, "Old Rose" tournament, her husband, who is corporation counsel for the J. P. Morgan banking interests, was the first to congratulate her.—Ballyhoo.

Mr. Matheson has also been chosen special representative of Barnes and Noble Book Company. He served as daily correspondent for this firm while a student at Weaver College.—New York Herald.

Johnny Hoyle, whom we hear daily over the ABC network, has purchased a summer home at Candler, N. C. He says that the natural beauty of the section is the most inspirational he has found.—College Humor.

Dr. Clyde Nelon has recently been awarded the Bobel Prize for his outstanding work in the field of psycho-interrogation. Dr. Nelon attributes his genius to the practice received in Weaver College chemistry classes.—Hooey.

It is thought by some that the suicide of the late "Bill" Rogers, would-be humorist, was because of envy of the success of G. Y. "Spready" Palmer, whose articles are appearing in the leading newspapers.—Chicago Tribune.

Miss Grace Phipps has just completed her latest novel, The Immutable Voice. Her publishers predict it will be a best seller.—Asheville Citizen.

Miss Martha "Tubby" Powell was appointed head of the foreign language department at E. C. T. C.—Greenville Enquirer.

Agnes Scott College was fortunate also in securing Miss Mary Elizabeth Reeves to head its dramatic department.—Atlanta Dew Drop.

Mrs. Mildred Fox Staples, prominent in Southern sewing circles, has moved with her husband into their new establishment at Bowdon, Ga.—Georgia Constitution.

Since becoming head of the Commercial Department at the University of Western North Carolina, formerly Weaver College, Miss Nell Morris has been commended for efficiency in her work.—Stony Knob Journal.

Mr. Howard Wilkie (D., N. C.) was elected speaker of the House by an overwhelming majority.—Washington Republican.

Since receiving her degree, Mrs. W. M. Wright has been successful as the principal of the Buncombe County Consolidated High School.—Asheville Citizen-Times.

Miss Frances Wilson returned today from an extended tour abroad. Among the points of interest she visited were London, Berlin, Monte Carlo, and Constantinople.—Fallston News.

Miss Marie Burton gave an organ recital in the auditorium of the Eastman School of Music last evening.—Rochester Tribune.

Miss Suzanne Gash now employed on the Weaver College teaching staff . . . the Little Church Around the Corner . . . Rosebud corsage . . . honeymoon . . . home at Beaver Lake—Winchester Rifle.

Mr. H. R. Lewis, whom we remember as the winner of the Medal for Classroom Punctuality at Weaver College, has been appointed assistant to Dr. Albert Einstein in his laboratory, specializing in heimgemacht research.—Berlin Pretzel.

Miss Martin spoke to the National Stenographers' Association recently on "The Economics of Chewing Gum and Razor Blades."—National Geographic.

The name of Mr. Harvey Wilson, trap drummer with the Hampton Institute Jazz Band, has been added to the list of the nation's millionaires. He says that he has accumulated his fortune from royalties on the sale of his original composition for dance orchestras.—Charlotte Preserver.

Mrs. Frances Thomasmillertatumfordwest, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Glass Company, made her Chicago début this season.—Summerfield Gazette.

Mr. Quenton, in other words, "Parson" Blalock, sheriff of Haywood County, revisited Weaver College last week.—Weaver Pep.

Announcing the birth of twins, a son and daughter, to Dr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick. Dr. Kirkpatrick is president of W. C. T. C. The twins have been named Ruth and Rufus.—Dayton Daily.

Miss Scroggs was extremely modest when she received the medal. Her record is 271 1/16 words per second. Mr. Heely Jones, president of the Hunt & Peck Typewriter Association, made the presentation.—Hayesville Lookout.

Mr. Felmet spoke to the sales personnel of the O! Henry Candy Company on "Why Gentlemen Prefer Blonds."—Columbia Sentinel.

Here They Come

(DEDICATED TO THE GOLDEN TORNADO OF 1932)

If I were writing poetry,
I'd spend an hour or two
In telling you, my friends,
What football men go through.

If you have never felt that feeling
That comes with vic'try and defeat,
Then you've missed most all, my friends,
For football's hard to beat.

There's the thrill of the referee's whistle
That starts this he-man game.
Then the team goes prancing out
To add to the old school's fame.

What player of the Gold and Black
Wouldn't dive into the dirt
To bring down a speeding half-back,
Regardless of the hurt?

The linesmen tackle and fearlessly charge
To meet the oncoming foe,
With a will to win and minds made up,
Never stop—but to go.

Then comes a thrilling forward pass;
The right-half snags it high,
Brings the stands to their feet,
As he passes the safety-man by.

Vic'try once more and a deep sensation
That causes our hearts to rejoice.
Vic'try won fair and honest
In this matchless game of our choice.

Here's to the men of the football togs,
Admiration for one and all,
Strong-hearted, determined in their cause
To do or die—to rise not fall.

—"COACH" RALPH E. JAMES.

RUMINATIONS OF A COLLEGE SOPHOMORE

Love is like a cigaret, which flares up brightly in the beginning, burns slowly and smoothly or fitfully and unevenly depending upon the quality of the cigaret and the degree of haste with which it is consumed, burns out and is tossed aside, is crushed out and "ducked" for use when whole ones are not to be had, or is exchanged for a fresher one.—Contributed.

WEAVER COLLEGE

JUNIOR
DENOMINATIONAL CO-EDUCATIONAL STANDARD

ITS TRAINING OFFERS—

The personal atmosphere of the small college.
The thoroughness of the standard college.
The deep-seated inspiration of the denominational college.
The symmetrical development of co-education.
The preparation for leadership of the junior college.
The low rates of the endowed college.
The vocational guidance of various definite courses of study.
The balanced self-government and supervision of dormitory life.

IN SHORT, AN IDEAL GATEWAY TO THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF UNIVERSITY, BUSINESS, OR HOME LIFE.

Where Quality Tells

What is an annual?

. . . to some . . . just another printing order.
. . . to us an opportunity to record history in its making . . . for an annual is a history of the school for the year in which it is published.

It is made today for its value tomorrow, to bring back to mind the happy memories of school days.

And with a keen appreciation of this future value, coupled with the experience of more than thirty years, we work closely with, and for, the school that the annual may be a complete, interesting history.

It may be next term . . . or a few years away in college . . . but when your thoughts turn to the publication of an annual may we have the opportunity of telling you more of the service we can render.
